THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Eric Hubbard

July 1999

What a great hobby. You learn new things every month. Like this month I learned not to hunt spider infested, sage brush covered ghost towns after dark!

Don't forget the competition hunt on the 21st of this month. Quite a few people have signed up and from several states. We need a good representation from the club tool, plus it's a good chance to win a detector.

Thursday the 26th is the Annual Club Picnic. Remember its been moved from the north bowery to the main bowery in Fairmont Park. The club is providing drinks, and charcoal. Bring whatever meat you want to grill and a main dish or desert to share. We'll also have an additional drawing this month. Ralph Gold has donated a child's slide to the club to be Raffled off. It can be sued wet or dry. So if you have Kids or a pool bye a few tickets. We will have the Find of the Month competition even though we're out doors. So hunt, hunt, hunt, and we'll see you there

See Your All Thursday,
Eric
